

Unit Leader

Pay: $600/week

Employment: June 26 -August 4. Monday –Friday. 8:30am-5:30pm. Some overnights.

Training: All Staff Training 6/21-6/23

Location: Incline Elementary School, Incline Village

Core Duty: Plan, organize & implement daily camp program activities & properly supervise the unit.

Camp Explore is seeking Unit Leaders to help plan, direct and implement fun activities that will interest our campers. Our Unit Leaders absolutely love to plan, are creative and get all of their ducks in a row. They have the gift of multi-tasking and an incredibly outgoing personality which helps them connect with other staff, campers and parents alike. They are fearless leaders with the goal in their hearts to get things done!

A Day in the Life of a Unit Leader:

- Diffuse an argument between two campers
- Redirect outdoor activities in the middle of a thunderstorm
- Bust out your guitar and sing along at the campout
- Call parents to pick up a sick camper
- Jump in the lake and kayak!
- Roast a couple well-earned s'mores over the campfire

This might be for you if:

You love planning and organizing activities and executing them gives you a thrill. Nothing falls through the crack on your watch, as your attention to detail is a super power you possess.

Creativity flows deep in your blood; your hands are magical at creating castles out of cardboard and Samurai Swords out of plastic tubes & duct tape. You work hard but play harder, as the experiences you create are fun and exciting for all. And no matter how tough and long the days and nights may seem you still get a kick out of planning for the next day.

You are easygoing and go with the flow, no matter the chaos. You enjoy the challenges each day brings, from balancing a kid throwing-up to stepping in for a burned out counselor who did not show up. You are a cool cucumber and a swift thinker. You simply know how to roll with the punches and quickly adapt and redirect your energy to minimize chaos.

Above all, your unique and amazing moral compass is always in tune, your integrity is what makes other's trust you and follow you as their leader as you naturally walk in the steps of a good role model.

You've Got:

- First Aid & CPR Certification
- Valid Driver's License
- Experience working with youth
- Hardworking & Un-ending energy

Extra Awesome:

- A passion to work with youth
- Have a brain full of camp songs & games
- Enjoy overnight camping
- A Silly & Fun personality

How to Apply:

To land this gig, you need to have a multi-tasking ability directly linked to your creativity. You would be super rad if you have experience in the area of running programs or experience in working with youth and supervising staff. It does not need to be formal intense experience; just let us know where you picked up your organizational and planning super powers in a cover letter or resume. Complete the attached application and email, fax or drop off directly to our main office. Once we receive your application we'll notify you if your application is being considered.
